

I am disgusted with how I see my tax dollars being spent on this issue. The power companies are going to cause untold amounts of interference to a huge amount of rf devices and they will not have to worry about fines or penalties from your commission. I feel that this issue moved way too fast and that there won't be any enforcement of interference issues caused by this BPL.